JACK M'AULIFFE ARRESTED. He is Suspected of Having Caused Katle Hart's Death.

New York. Oct. 15 .- Jack McAuliffe, the champion light-weight pugilist of America, was arrested in Brooklyn at 4 o'clock this morning by Detective Hayes and Special Officer O'Connell on suspicion of having caused the death of Katie Hart, the well-known soubrette, in the West Side Hotel, at 15th street and sixty-eighth avenue, yesterday afternoon. McAuliffe was taken to the 30th street station and he was arraigned before Coroner Hanly at the coroner's office. It had been known for some time past in the theatrical pro-fession that McAulifie was engaged to marry Katie Hart. She was a young woman of remarkable physical beauty, about nineteen years old, and apparently deeply in love with the boxer. It is said in some quarters that they were married a few months ago in San Francisco, after McAul ffe's fight with Carroll. She was playing here in the "Natural Gas"

AT THE HOTEL The well-known boxer, according to the version given last night by the clerk at the hotel desk, walked in the West Side Hotel about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon accompanied by the young woman and called for a room. Mc-Auliffe had frequently lodged at the house before and he was assigned a room on the third floor facing 6th avenue.

Toward 5 o'clock McAuliffe rushed down the stairs of the hotel and told the clerk that "his wife" had just died, and begged him to send for a physician.

McAuliffe himself went for a doctor. When the latter arrived he found the young woman lying dead on the bed. The case was reported to the police, and Mrs. Gussie Hart of 98 Lexington avenue was notified of her daughter's sudden death.

When Policeman Callihan of the nineteenth precinct viewed the body he noticed a slight wound on the nose and a swelling of the upper lip of the dead woman and he so reported to Acting Capt. Schmittberger. THE PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

The cause of death, as given by the physician in attendance, was heart failure and preparations were made to remove the body to McAuliffe's home in Williamsburg for burial, As the details of the circumstances leading up to the tragedy were gradually brought out it occurred to Acting Capt. Schmittberger to go down to the hotel and view the body himself. He then made an investigation on his own account, and concluding that the case looked suspicious he detailed two officers to secure McAuliffe. The latter was found in the house of a friend in Brooklyn, and he was willing to accompany

It was learned, however, that very suspicious facts were in the possession of the police. It appears from their statements that when the young woman died McAuliffe, instead of giving notice at the hotel office, locked the door and left the hotel without notifying the

A tall, blonde-mustached young man, who claimed to be a physician, called at Mrs. Hart's house on Lexington avenue about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He wanted to see Mrs. Hart, and when she came into the parlor he told her that her daughter was dead. Mrs. Hart would not believe it, and on the invitation of the man she went with him in a cab to the Here the alleged physician disappeared, but when Mrs. Hart reached the room where her daughter's body lay the door was locked.

McAuliffe was not to be found, and the griefstricken woman hurried up to his saloon, in west 26th street, where she again met the same physican, who told her that it was true that Katie was dead and he insisted that she return to the hotel.

Mrs. Hart then rushed back to the hotel. The clerk did not even know that the woman accompanying McAuliffe was dead. The door of the room was still locked and the boxer had not returned. Finally it was decided to burst the door open, which was done, and there, stretched upon the bed, was the dead body of

HIS PECULIAR CONDUCT.

When McAuliffe had left his sweetheart dead in the room, he hurried off to notify his friends. His peculiar conduct in locking the door and going away without giving notice looked very suspicious, and Acting Captain Schmithberger thought it a proper case for an

Guilty of Manslaughter.

In the Criminal Court, Chief Justice Bingham, today Alexander Campbell, a colored boy, was placed on trial on the charge of an assault and battery with intent to kill James Collins August 12 last. Mr. Hewlett appeared for the defendant. The prosecuting witness was employed as a bricklayer on sewer work on Capitol Hill and Campbell in dumping sand or gravel dropped some in Collins' mortar. The latter remonstrated, and when the act was repeated struck Campbell, who, it is alleged, went off a short distance and fired a pistol at Collins. The jury found a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to the mercy of the

The Government Owned the Box. A case was tried before Judge Mills in the Police Court this morning in which the ownership of a photographic box was the question to be decided. John Nephew, the photographer, was charged with the larceny of the box from Jos. Able. The latter, it appeared, went to Nephew's place Sunday to develop some pictures, and while there Mr. Nephew claimed that he owned the box. Mr. Able, it was shown, had borrowed the box from Cudlip's establishment and each side attempted to prove ownership by certain breaks in the box. From the evidence submitted Judge Mills was satisfied that the box was really the property of the government and had been loaned by Mr. Hillers of the geological survey to the late Mr. Cudlip about five years ago. In conclusion the found that Mr. Nephew was mistaken in the belief the box was his property and therefore dismissed the charge of larceny. The box was turned over to Mr. Hillers to be returned to for Brooklyn, N. Y., to witness the marriage of their eldest son, R. Lee White, and Miss Dielman of that city. The young couple, after a man of that city.

THE DEAD JUSTICE. Arrangements for the Obsequies in the. Supreme Court Room Tomerrow.

The utmost simplicity, commensurate with the respectful attention due such an exalted office as that of a justice of the United States Supreme Court, will mark the funeral ceremonies of the late Justice Miller. In a general way the arrangements have been completed and it is announced that the services in this city will held in the Supreme Court room at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Members of the family will, with a small number of specially invited persons, including the President, members of his cabinet and Supreme Court justices, leave the Miller residence on Massachusetts avenue at about 1:45 and proceed from thence to the Capitol.

THE SERVICES WILL BE CONDUCTED

by Rev. Rush R. Shippen of All Souls' Unitarian Church and Rev. Dr. Bartlett of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church. The remains will not be moved from the Capitol until late in the afternoon, when they will be placed on the funeral train in the Baltimore and Potomac depot. The train will leave for Keokuk at 7:30 p.m., going over the tracks of the Pennsylvania and Burlington companies. It is expected that Keokuk will be reached at 10 a.m. on Saturday. A committee composed of the most prominent citizens of Keokuk will meet the funeral party at the depot and escort the cortege to the Uni-tarian Church, where services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Hassell.

THE ESCORT NOT YET DETERMINED. At present it is not definitely known who of the justices will go to Keokuk; that will not be decided until tonight, Marshall Wright (who has charge of all the arrangements) and Chief Clerk McKenney will certainly go. It is also probable that Mr. E. D. York, the late justice's private secretary, and Fred Faust, one of the Supreme Court pages, will also be of the party.
